In October Wine & Spirits Magazine will publish their 6th annual "Top 100 Wineries" issue and we are thrilled to announce that two of our producers have been selected - GRAMONA and EQUIPO NVAZOS.

Gramona

Gramona is a family winery located in the region of Barcelona which lies at the foot of the Montserrat mountain range, on the shores of the Mediterranean, in the heart of the Penedès denomination of origin. For more than 125 years, the Batlle family has been making Cava - very unique and highly-appreciated sparkling wines - and wines with a distinct character, which express both the original personality of the winery and the traditional special soils that nurture their wines.

CURRENT RELEASES (sold DI):
2008 Gessami - $16 SRP
2006 Gran Cuvee - $20 SRP

2005 Imperial - $28 SRP - 93 points

2001 III Lustrós - $45 SRP- 92 points

Equipo Navazos selects specific butts of special finesse and complexity from some of the most prestigious bodegas in the Sherry and Montilla regions. These are bottled privately for a group of wine lovers. The selections made by Equipo Navazos are without any doubt among the greatest wines of the world.

Since the summer of 2007, backed by the enthusiastic support of a small number of distributors including Eric Solomon, a small amount of these bottles is made available to the general public. The Bota de No 7 was selected as the Sibaritas "Wine of the Year" (Spain's most heralded wine publication).
